DEDICATION

The 1972 Annual Staff and the students of Cassville High School would like to dedicate this annual to Mrs. Althea Nalan.

Mrs. Nalan's 27 years of teaching have made her worthy of this dedication. Her many travels to Europe and Hawaii, as well as around the States, have enriched her classes during her eight years of teaching here. Besides her daily art classes at school, she has also conducted night adult art classes and art shows.

I WANT TO KNOW WHICH ONE OF YOU KIDS PUT GLUE IN MY HAT YESTERDAY, AND I WANT TO KNOW RIGHT NOW.

CASSVILLE GETS FIRST STATE CHARTER

Terry Junk and Allan Ackerman journeyed to Milwaukee to the Wisconsin Industrial Education Convention. The convention was held at the beautiful Red Carpet Inn and Expo Center. The primary purpose for this trip was to begin the formulating of a state association for student Industrial Education Clubs.

Dr. Herbert Anderson, President of the WIEA convention and Dean of Applied Science and Industry at Stout State University, bestowed upon Terry and Al the FIRST State Charter. The trip was financed by a $100 scholarship donated by the Cassville Education Association.

Everything proved to be an exciting week.

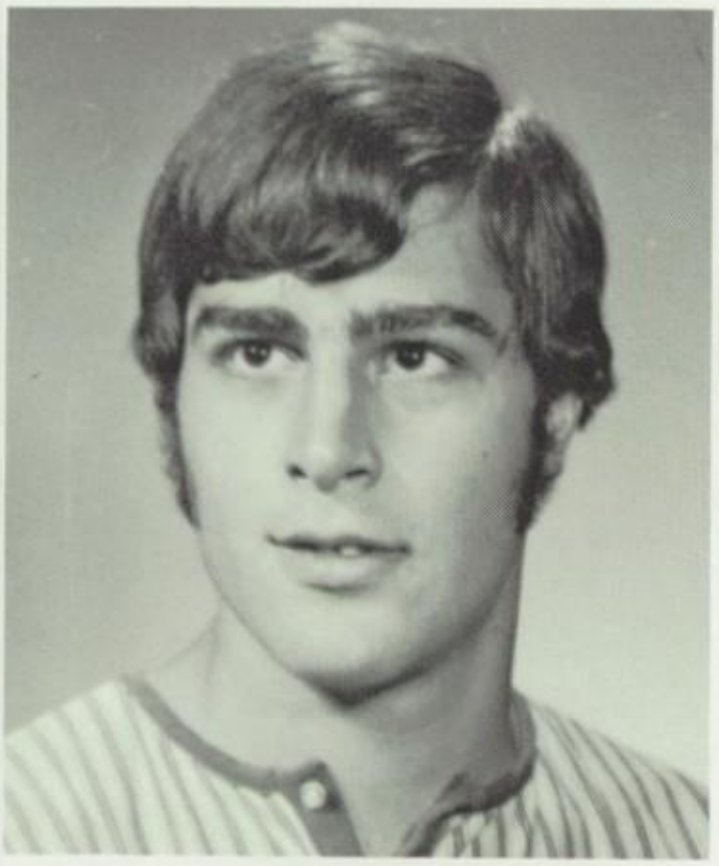
Could this be our queen

The year of '72 brought to us our class rings which we had waited for so long. Our prom "COLOUR MY WORLD" was a great success and it was reigned over by Roger Schnering and JoEllen Blackbourn. The work that we did we thought well worth it but in 3 short hours it was over. Another phase of our life was behind us. We also had a renaissance day on Dec. 23. Mrs. Bernhardt tried to make us into cultured people!!! At homecoming we took 1st on our window and 2nd on our skit.

UNDERCLASSMEN AWARDS



Badger Boy: Bob David

Badger Girl: Ceanna Zimmer

Spoon Recipient: Mary Ackerman

The Sophomore Class received the Spirit Award this year. This award is given yearly to the class who has shown the most spirit at sport events.

OUR STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS

WE RECOGNIZE . . .

Mrs. Dorothy Patch, born in Bagley Wisconsin, received her Bachelor's Degree in 1959 from Platteville College. She has had 26 years of teaching of which 7 years were at Cassville.

Mrs. Lillian Clow, born in Cassville Wisconsin, received her Bachelor's Degree in 1963 from the University of LaCrosse. She's taught 28 years in Rural schools and 15 years in the Cassville Public Elementary School.

Mrs. Veronica Ransom, born in Mitchell, South Dakota, moved to Wisconsin, in 1932. She earned her Bachelor's Degree in 1959 at the University of Platteville. She has had 30 years of teaching, of which 12 were spent at Cassville.

The 1972 high school year book staff is happy and honored to give recognition to these three elementary teachers. They have worked hard and given much of their time to make this school system something to be proud of.

IN MEMORIUM

In this my green world
flowers, birds are hands
They hold me
I am loved all day
All this pleases me
I am amused
I have to laugh from crying
Trees, mountains are arms
I am loved all day.

Ronald Reding was a good friend and his loss was not expected. Ronald loved the out of doors and we feel that this poem brings out our thoughts and feelings of his loss.

Our thoughts are with you, Ronald.

CLASS HISTORY

The Class of 1972 entered Cassville High School for the first time on August 22, 1968. The class consisted of 64 students, but as the year progressed Lynette Adams, Robert Clifton, Doug Flesch, Mark Gifford, and Francis Mumm, left our group. Our advisors were Miss Gutknecht, Mr. Hooks, and Mr. Dobson, and our officers were President, Jerry Hochhausen; Vice-President, Diane Koelker; Secretary, Pam Metcalfe; Treasurer, Louie Okey; and Student Council Representatives, Judy Fishnick and Tom Gehde. Judy Fishnick was also our representative on the Homecoming court.

As Sophomores, our advisors were Mr. Hooks, Mr. Starr, and and Mr. Stead. Our Officers were President, Louie Okey; Vice-President, Sally Metclafe; Secretary, Diane Kirschbaum; Treasurer, Jane Esser; and Student Council Representatives, Carolyn Mumm and Jim Wamsley. Marilyn Gengler and Bill Metcalfe were welcomed as new students. Renee Mayne was Homecoming Representative and our class won the school spirit award for 1969.

Our advisors changed again in our junior year to Mr. Starr, Mr. Stead, and Mr. Stemper. Our officers were: President, Chuck Wright; Vice-President, Louie Okey; Secretary, Jim Wamsley; Treasurer, Jerry Hochhausen; and Student Representatives, Pam Metcalfe and Phil Bernhardt. Viola Breuer and Pam Ackerman left our class during the year. Our class won the theme for Homecoming with the theme "Pounding for a Victory," and Jane Esser was our representative on the court. The highlight of the year was the Prom, which took place on April 17, 1971. The theme was "Love in Paris." The members of the court were: King Jim Wamsley and Queen Judy Fishnick, Phil Bernhardt and Diane Kirschbaum, Gary Bartels and Deb Soule, Tom Gehde and Renee Mayne, and Dave Ley and Deb Fishnick, Louie Okey and Janet Breese, Chuck Wright and Donna Garner, and Miniature King and Queen: Brad and Jenny Adrian. But this year was not only a time of joy. The class was saddened during the year by the death of a classmate - Ronald Reding. He is greatly missed by all.

Senior year echoed with the phrase, "This is our last." The CLASS of 72 now consists of 59 students, Larry Bontregor being the new student. Advisors are Mr. Starr, Mr. Stemper, and Mr. Vincent. Our Officers are: President, Ellen Hauk; Vice-President, Owen Adrian; Secretary, Stuart Kirschbaum; Treasurer, Joyce Adrian; and Student Council Representatives, Diane Koelker and Louie Okey. Our Valedictorian is Ellen Hauk and Salutatorian is Kathleen Laufenberg. This fall Deb Fishnick was elected Homecoming Queen and Louie Okey was Homecoming King. Ellen Hauk was the Senior representative. Our class once again won the Homecoming theme award with the theme "Do your own thing for a Victory." The class trip was taken to Northernaire Lodge at Three Lakes, Wisconsin on May 13 and 14, and an enjoyable time was had by all. Tomorrow night, May 19, 1972, is graduation, and each of 59 graduates will be beginning a new phase of his or her life with the phrase, "This is our first."

CLASS PROPHECY

TIME: Saturday, December 19, 1982
PLACE: New York City, New York
EVENT: Ten Year Reunion of Class of "72"

After much discussion and many different proposals, we decided to have our ten year class reunion in New York City. The reason for this decision you will find out shortly.

I, DONNA GARNER, now am an art teacher. I live in Madison and I am one of the teachers at the University in Madison.

I called the Blue Cab Taxi Service and they sent over a car to take me to the airport Friday afternoon. I was quite amazed to see JIM GEHDE, owner of the Blue Cab, in the driver's seat. Jim and I talked on the way to the airport. Jim said his business was going bankrupt so he had to lay off some of his drivers and drive one of the cabs himself. He said, despite the fact that he was losing his business, he was happy. Driving the cab made him feel younger. It reminded him of his high school days when he "bombed" around in his Mustang.

Arriving at the airport, I was greeted by a bellboy who offered to carry my luggage. I stared for a moment, then suddenly I realized that this bellboy was one of my classmates, JOEL ACKERMAN. I asked him if he was going to the reunion. He said he couldn't because the whole airport was lost without him.

On the same flight I was taking were several of my classmates. MIKE MEIER was our pilot and DIANE KIRSCHBAUM one of our stewardesses. The flight was one of the most uncomfortable I've ever taken. I think it was the pilots first flight and the stewardess kept tripping over things. (Her feet were a bit large, though, maybe that was why).

Also on the flight as passengers were SALLY METCALF, NANCY FLUETSCH, JUDY FISHNICK, LOIS BREUER, VICKI FURE, DOUG CORNELL, and SHAYNE WORSHAM. Sally finally finished beautician school last year. She now has a job at Capri in Dubuque. She has only missed 245 days of work this year. (That's out of 250 work days, though). Nancy Fluetsch has also finished school. She is now a musical therapist working in Madison. Judy Fisnick is now one of the top models in the country. Her boyfriend of school days, JIM WAMSLEY, didn't pop the question as fast as his brother, Jerry, so Judy left Cassville in search of something better. Rumors have been going around that after ten years, tonight might be the night Jim finally asks her. Lois Breuer is now the owner of the largest Burger Chef in Madison. She owes her success mainly to her new type of hamburger. She calls it the "smoodle-burger". Serving as her head waitress is her faithful friends, Vicke Fure, "Gun of War", the famous horse that won the Triple Crown this year owned by Doug Cornell. Doug and his jockey, Shayne Worsham, had been resting in Cassville during the off season for racing so they drove to Madison to catch a plane.

Finally, late Friday night, we arrived in New York. Falling snow lightly covered the groung. I hopped into a cab and directed the driver to the One Time Motel.

BETTY BARTELS, owner of the motel is providing free accommodations for members of the class wanting to stay overnight in New York. Despite this generous offer of Betty's, a few of my classmates might have problems since Betty generally only lets couples stay in her motel.

I arrived at the motel and had to wait a few minutes to get a room. In the hall, also waiting, were JOYCE ADRIAN and the former DEB KOELKER. Joyce is part owner in the Pabst Brewery. The big stockholders in the company are complaining about her doing all the supervising at the brewery. It seems she's been drinking up all the profits. After much contemplation and deep reflection, four years ago, Deb Koelker entered the sisterhood. Just two months ago she took her final vows and became Sister Virginette.

It was about 9:00 Saturday morning when I left my room to go to a restaurant for breakfast. There was about four inches of snow on the ground now. The wind was blowing and it was really quite nasty out.

I stopped at a news stand to get a newspaper. The headlines read, "Blizzard Moves Across The U. S. ". I picked it up and took it along with me to the restaurant to read over some coffee. The headline article said the snowstorm was the biggest in a long time. Roads were blocked, traffic jammed, and airplanes grounded. I was glad most of my classmates were already in town.

After reading several different sections of the paper, I turned to read Deb's solumn. DEB KAUFFMAN started up her own Ann Lander's type column a couple of years ago. It's been a very big success because she really understands peoples problems.

Later Saturday morning I found out three of my classmates didn't make it because of the snow. BILL METCALF was going to bring SUE RAISBECK on his "mini-bike" to New York, cross-country, but got caught in the blizzard in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, so having nothing else to do they decided to get married. DONNA LEY also didn't make it because of the storm. Donna found a job in Milwaukee at a resort area. She drives a speed boat in the summer and a snowmobile in the winter for vacationers.

It's Saturday night and almost time for supper. I suppose now is as good a time as any to tell you why we chose New York as the place for our class reunion. We chose it because the Russian ballet "Swan Lake" was opening tonight and two of our classmates were performing the leading parts in the play. So we decided to have dinner before the ballet and a party after.

As I walked into the Royce Night Club where we were to have our evening meal. I saw across the room the former LEEANN RITTENHOUSE. She motioned for me to come over to sit with her and her husband. In case your wondering, Leeann married Tom Giesen. She is a real farmer now. She even milks the cows and slops the pigs herself.

Tom does the housework and the cooking while she does the outside work, the reason being, he got tired of eating pizzas and hamburgers.

I sat down to dinner with Leeann and Tom. Some of my classmates were still arriving. We were about half-way through the main course when four of our more athletically inclined classmates arrived. Even during High School days these four were great runners. The 880 pursuit relay team consisting of BEV BAUSCH, DEB SOULE, CORRINE RAUCH, and GARY BARTELS show promise for bringing home Olympic Gold in the next summer Olympics.

Seated right next to us were RENEE MAYNE, TOM GEHDE, DEB FISHNICK, and DAVE LEY. Tom and Renee are married but seem to be having some difficulties. Tom, seeing how happy Deb and Dave were with their marriage, asked Dave why he and Deb were so happy. Dave's reply was, "Well, I guess we owe our happiness to one thing. We both believe in a little work and a lot of play."

Leeann and Tom and I left for the theater early so we could talk to some of our classmates before the ballet started. One of the people I talked with was STEVE LATAKAS. He is now an engineer. When I asked him how he liked his work he replied, "The psychological difference of the intellectual capacitations of the emphasis of the integrated emancipation is highly illogical . . . ," yes, that's what he said. Don't ask me what it means though.

Standing to one side of the lobby was the new FBI director, RANDY ADRIAN and his private secretary, KATHY LAUFENBURG. The President has commended Randy for his fine job. He said, "Mr. Adrian seems to always know where the trouble spots are and the people involved almost before a crime is committed."

I talked to SHARON FRIED, MARILYN GENGHLER, and the former DIANE KOELKER. Sharon and Marilyn are attending college in Platteville now. Both girls enjoyed skipping school so much in their high school days that they decided to go back to school so they could continue this hobby. Diane Koelker has been committed - in marriage, that is, to Danien Kirschbaum. She's gone to live with him on the airbase in Texas.

The ballet was almost ready to start. I guess now is as good a time as any to tell you about the ballet. As I said before it's a Russian ballet and the name of it is "Swan Lake". Performing in the role of Minerva, goddess of the deep, is PEG ZITTEL. She didn't decide until after several years of college the ballet was her true calling. The leader male part in the ballet is being performed by CHARLES WRIGHT. His tights fit him very nicely.

The ballet was lovely. I enjoyed it very much, in fact, I think everyone enjoyed it.

We had the party after the ballet at the Fritz Night Club. "LONNIE BAUSCH and His Band of Renoun" provided the music for the evening. Les Brown was feeling a bit under the weather one night so Lonnie took over. He's had the job ever since. One of the members of the band is also a classmate of ours. KAREN CHAPMAN has been in Lonnie's Band of Renoun since his debute as a conductor.

Everyone at the party was eager to renew old friendships and find out what everyone else was doing now. I was no different.

As I looked around the room the person I could see the most notable change in was MIKE SCHAUFF. He is now the 6'3" 250 lb. quarterback of the Green Bay Packers. Bart Starr retired in 1973 and Mike has been with the Packers ever since. They have a no-loss record so far for this season.

During the course of the evening, I talked to all of my classmates that were at the reunion. PAM METCALFE is now the United States Ambassador to the U. N. She is still telling people to stop talking while she's interrupting. STUART KIRSCHBAUM is still attending college after ten years. He's majoring in finger painting and minoring in flower picking.

I was surprised to find out that of all my classmates only one was a millionaire. This person was EUGENE MUMM. He owns several farms on which he raises dairy cattle. DONALD REDING is his right hand man.

After much bumming around, LARRY BONTREGER decided to become a doctor. He is taking his internship training at Finley Hospital in Dubuque. He spends most of his time holding up the walls looking at cute nurses as they pass by. JANET BREESE, as head nurse in the hospital, says, he can be very trying at times. Already this week she has caught him six times in patients rooms after hours. But she said she had to admit he was cheering up the women patients.

MARY BAUSCH is now the manager of Northernaire resort. Northernaire had been the place where we went for our class trip. The management there for our trip quit after we left claiming we were too much for them. After finishing high school, Mary took over the management.

The former JUDY AND JANE ESSER, both now married, have taken over Tesch's Flower Shop in Cassville. Both they and their husbands are working at the shop. Business is very good.

KATHY HOCHHAUSEN just won another race. She is now the fastest typist in the world. DIANE HAMPTON challenged her to a race, but once again Kathy's speed was too much. Kathy ran her carriage right off her typewriter.

I talked to Sue Wamsley, the former SUE BALIFF. She told me she had nine kids now. (She was pregnant with her tenth). I couldn't remember exactly but I thought Sue had been the one in high school who had said she only wanted three kids. I wonder what happened??????

LOUIE OKEY and ELLEN HAUK both U. S. Senators, were discussing what should be done about the war. Louie still felt that the whole country should be bombed, therefore eliminating the whole problem. Ellen's solution to the problem seemed a bit more realistic to me. A lot of people feel that Ellen will be our first woman President and I quite agree with the prediction.

I went over to talk with JEFF SCHAAL and the former CAROLYN MUMM. I found that both were married now. Jeff is a pitcher for the Chicago Cubs. The Cubs didn't win a game last season. Carolyn and Stan Hampton are happily married and are raising turkeys on their farm.

I missed a couple of my classmates but it seems they couldn't make it to the reunion tonight. PHIL BERNHARDT made plans for another rock festival out to his farm before he knew we were having the reunion. He is calling it Wadena II. Phil is having various rock bands but the main attraction will be the high flying act performed by JERRY HOCHHAUSEN.

It was getting late, the party was over, and my story has come to an end.

I really don't think anyone can predict the future but I was asked to write the prophecy so I did. I had fun doing it and I hope you enjoyed listening to it. I just want to wish all my classmates good luch in their ventures after high school and I hope they all are successful in whatever they do but one thing I hope they all remember is this - "True success can only be measured by your own happiness."

The Class of '72 spent their two-day trip at Northernaire, Wisconsin. Boting, swimming, golf, ping pong, horseback riding and fishing was provided for as entertainment. In the evening there was a floor show consisting of many different acts. We all had fun.
